作者近況

知り合いのボクサーのジムで、初めてボクシングのトレーニングしてきた。どうしても長谷川穂積のマネがしたくてサウスポーでやってみたんだけど……必死になればなるほど利きがでちゃって無理だった。利き手を変えてできるほど甘くはないよね……。

Mrs. Rie Kimura

I watched the video of his fight.

If I were to say from what I saw,
You can't think of Ryoga Ishida as an amateur as he possesses a high degree of skill.

The way he spaces himself, his speed and timing
Towers above an average boxer.

And then there's that finishing right hook...
Even I, who have recieved pro training
Was captured by that hook of his

It's really surprising that an amateur like him was hiding somewhere!

If I were to explain the technical aspects of it,

MANGA AGGRESSION! 月刊アクション 毎月25日発売!!!

Hm?
What is it?
It's about the article of that family of murderers
Chief
Can I have a talk?
What about it? Did a complaint come in yet?

Well ....
He's downstairs right now actually

Got it!

He might go wild in here ....
If you see a chance for a juicy photo then take the picture!

If you're supposed to be a pro then start acting like a damn pro
Is there a problem with the article?

You're the one who wrote that article right?

Yes, That was me

You got it all wrong
You wrote about my father's boxing record but

It was only 4
He didn't have 5 losses

How heavy the weight of a single loss is to a boxer
A person like you probably doesn't know .....
What...? He had a problem with that?

Boxers risk their life each fight

23

Do you think I will forgive you with just a casual apology?
With that mistake of yours, you've managed to hurt my father's record
By the way

Especially from someone like you

I am very sorry
Umm ....
It is my mistake

I don't care about what you say about me
We can issue an apology later today if you'd like
